

UK open source AWARDS

The Informatics Forum of the University of Edinburgh
Wednesday 12 June 2019

UKOSA is a free non-profit event that celebrates and acknowledges the contributions from the community of technology experts that make open source such a powerful and unstoppable disruptive force in the current technology landscape.

We are looking for nominations in five categories for individuals and organisations which in the last year have shown exceptional initiative with free and open source software.

Individual Award

Company Award

Public Sector and Third Sector Award

Diversity Award

Student Award

Featuring keynote speaker
Frank Karlitschek

Nominations Close at 5pm on Monday 22nd April 2019

For more information and to nominate visit:
opensourceawards.org